

Aimerie

Bass Music Producer / DJ

Aimerie is the creative alias of a bass music DJ, producer, curator, and mentor. Given her lifelong fascination with the deep sea underworld, Aimerie's touch for crafting dark, lurking soundscapes makes sense. Her otherworldly interpretation of sound system music is inspired by seminal artists like Biome, as well as by friends and co-creators in the bass music community.

Located in Denver, CO, Aimerie is an educator for The Black Box Studio where she teaches music production using Ableton Live. As a team member of SubSequential and a resident for the groundbreaking Minneapolis crew's monthly 140-centered night, Aimerie is an underground activist and a local staple on the decks. Known to deliver cutting-edge curation, Aimerie's passion for pushing grassroots sounds has landed her on prolific lineups at events like Sub.mission's Bass Invasion in Denver, Infrasound Music Festival, and Outlook Festival, alongside artists including The Widdler, Truth, DJ Youngsta, Khiva, and many more.
